In the context of workforce development preparation, students learn behavioral and social skills needed to succeed in the workplace and school settings. The SYEP Program Coordinator provides the Search Institute Youth Developmental Assets Assessment to ascertain which of the 40 Youth Developmental Assets are most likely limiting progress or acting as barriers to success in the youth's life. Our Youth Career Training helps the youth to identify workplace strengths and interests by field of endeavor. MCCDC youth financial education courses teach financial management practices and strengthen math skills. Finally, SYEP Job Coach finds each participant an internship so that they may learn to apply their job readiness training in real time while learning about the rigors and requirements of work, living wages, and work-life balance. Students receive weekly stipends as an incentive to remain fully engaged with the program away from negative alternative behaviors such as drug use, abuse of elderly, theft, vandalism, and the like. We are hereby requesting the needed $10,000 to help us provide training and internships for Marin County youth. Your support of our program is sincerely appreciated and will help keep Marin County youth productively engaged this summer.

List of all community interests that will be affected by the proposed project/program and the public benefit to be derived from it:

The community interests that are most affected by our Summer Youth Empowerment Program (SYEP) are: 1) Marin City and Marin County residents (crime reduction and behavioral improvements); 2) Families of the youth participants (stipends to youth enhance overall family income and help combat persistent poverty in Golden Gate Village Projects and surrounding areas; 3) Schools (remedial education improves student performance, confidence, and competency); 4) Police departments and first responders (fewer incidences of petty theft and violence in Marin City); 5) Retail stores and shopkeepers (provision of higher quality summer interns and less negative disruptions during the summer; 6) Churches and nonprofit organizations capacity building (acquisition of trained youth to complete special projects at no cost to the agency during the summer session); 7) Juvenile court system (fewer youth apprehended because of the commitment to SYEP and their internships. Most importantly, youth and their peers are better connected to their families and learn leadership roles. For example, SYEP youth report that their stipends contributed to family stability by purchasing needed clothing and food or providing fund to help their families to offset utility costs during the summer.
