COUNTY OF MARIN ANNUAL HOUSING ELEMENT REPORT 2014

General Comments:

In 2013, the County completed and adopted the 2007-2014 Housing Element and received State certification. In 2014, the County began work on the next Housing Element for planning period 2015-2023. Overall, the County successfully implemented 49 out of a total of 54 programs in the 2007-2014 Housing Element, or 91%. Many key programs were implemented through development code changes and Countywide Plan amendments, including:

- Establishing an Affordable Housing Combined Zoning District
- Allow Rental of Detached Accessory Structures
- Rezone Land to Multi-family Zoning
- Modify Development Code to Reflect Williamson Act
- Promote the Development of Agricultural Workers Units in Agricultural Zones

In addition, the County was successful addressing other key programs, such as:

- Adopted Multi-family Design Guidelines to promote attractive designs and facilitate multi-family housing
- Continued to work with local stakeholders to replace, repair and add additional housing for agricultural worker housing
- Worked with local housing providers to encourage affordable housing development

Programs that were only partially implemented or not yet initiated during the 2007-2014 planning period due to staffing time and resources have been carried forward to the 2015-2023 Housing Element for implementation during the new planning period.
