The last one was an issue with me coming and leaving due to tricky ride situations. I know I have a strong voice and I need to continue to represent my community and I can bring a different perspective because I come from Marin City Jenni Pleads yo case: I was sick the 1st time, then couldn't find someone to

	cover for me and then I had my aunt's wedding. I should have prioritized this and I am sorry for that. I like MCYC and my voice being heard and I like doing what we are doing and learning about different schools and don't want to be let go. I like all of you. Elena- she is a very strong voice in cmte and most of what we do is because of how strong she is. I like having her in the group and I understand where she is coming from. Ben- she has been present at all cmte meetings as well. Aidan- I would suggest probation because same offense means same punishment Deborah- maybe a recommendation that she reach out for help sooner for transportation Unanimous probation Aidan- Jenni just got commissioner of the week, she is picking it up and making a turn. She is making this more of a priority and I believe her if she says she will prioritize Jake- I can agree with that Unanimous probation for Jenni 7:04 Mo presents on Media training
