

Students and Teachers Restore a Watershed (STRAW)

In 2013, 5th grade students from Bahia Vista Elementary School in San Rafael installed 160 native plants in a wetland/upland transition zone at Pickleweed Park with the STRAW Program.

The restoration work that students and teachers did here will help provide homes for wildlife and a healthier and more resilient ecosystem for all of us.
www.prbo.org/straw

