Seasonal Dispatch Assistant Recruitment-Extra Hire

Hourly rate: $18.88 - $20.82

Application period: January 5 - February 27, 2017

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Seasonal Dispatch Assistant for the Marin County Fire Department. This is an opportunity for an extra-hire Fire Dispatcher Assistant to help with dispatching resources, and performing both emergency and non-emergency incident support work.

The ideal candidate:

- ✓ Is an effective communicator with the ability to multi-task;
- ✓ Possesses sound judgment under stress and emergency situations;
- ✓ Deals tactfully with the public;
- ✓ Works well in conjunction with cooperating agencies and coworkers:
- ✓ Read and interpret maps;
- ✓ Will be able to learn to dispatch public safety equipment in an effective manner;
- ✓ Knowledge of word, excel and window based programs.

Prior experience in emergency services is highly desirable, as well as, completion of an accredited dispatch training program. This is a seasonal position expected to start around April 2017 and conclude at the end of fire season (late Fall).

The typical work schedule consists of 10-12 hour shifts, but candidates must be willing to work a 24-hour shift if needed. Must be willing to be called back and work overtime in emergency situations.

For specific information on the Marin County Fire Department, please visit us on Facebook or our department web page.

If you wish to be considered for this extra-hire opportunity, please send your completed application to Kellie Sullivan at ksullivan@marincounty.org.

Marin County is located north of San Francisco, just across the Golden Gate Bridge. The Mediterranean climate along with the commitment to open space makes it one of the most enjoyable living areas in the country. The County of Marin provides a wide range of services including health care, social services, parks and open space, fire control, criminal justice, and community development to its more than 250,000 residents in its 521 square mile area. The county seat of Marin County is San Rafael and is easily accessible from all parts of the Bay Area.

Thank you for considering Marin County for employment. We appreciate that you have taken the time and effort to submit an application.

Working for Marin County can be exciting and challenging. Regardless of your specific employment interest, you will provide public service to a local community that is active, diverse and expects high quality service.

It is sometimes said that the recruitment process in government hiring is too lengthy. We find that the time frame we use is necessary to attract and evaluate all candidates in a thorough and fair process. To give you an idea of the time frame, the following is indicative of a typical recruitment.

Recruitments generally have a two to six week application filing period.

- Candidates are notified of their status information approximately five days after the close of the filing period.
- If you meet the minimum qualifications, you will receive notification informing you of the subsequent testing process. This generally takes another week or two. If you do not meet the minimum qualifications, you will receive a notice stating the reason.
- Should a second or third step be necessary due to the number of candidates, it may take an additional week or two. Notices of each step will be mailed to the candidate.
- If you are among the final candidates, again, you will receive notification. The candidates with the top five scores will be the first to be certified to the department with a vacancy. Candidates are sent an invitation to the selection interview when they are certified.
- Depending on the number of candidates for each recruitment, the examination timeframe may be anywhere from one to six weeks after the filing deadline.

Although the recruitment process may take several weeks, the rewards of County employment are plentiful. Attaining County employment is an honored accomplishment. It means you were among the most qualified in your chosen field! You will be joining other high quality individuals in providing excellent service to a wonderful community.
