Grant Request Information

Program/Project Name: Fair Housing / AFFH Conference 2017

Amount Requested Dollar: $2,500.00

Total Project Cost: $6,500.00

Description of the proposed project/program, including the proposed project's goal(s), and the nature of the costs in specific terms, i.e. materials, labor costs, etc. Specifics of how the requested County funds will be used.

Fair Housing of Marin (FHOM) is planning a Fair Housing Conference for April, 2017 to educate stakeholders on how to affirmatively further fair housing and how to advance the fair housing agenda in Marin County. The conference will address impediments to Fair Housing choice, and discuss how AFFH obligations affect affordable housing, employment, education, transportation, public health and other aspects of community life.

List of all community interests that will be affected by the proposed project/program and the public benefit to be derived from it:

Given the issues Marin County faces in regards to fair and affordable housing, the conference provides an opportunity to address strategies designed to best meet the goal of affirmatively furthering fair housing. The purpose of the event is to educate stakeholders on fundamental fair housing issues, address impediments to fair housing choice and discuss how fair housing intersects with affordable housing, employment, education, transportation, and public health. The conference is geared towards stakeholders, including housing and community advocates, local government and elected officials, city planners, community service staff, social service providers, public and private housing providers, and communities impacted by the housing issues affecting Marin.

The total amount received for the past three fiscal years:

Year	Amount	Project
2015 - 2016	$2,500.00	Fair Housing Conference
2014 - 2015	$2,500.00	Fair Housing Conference
2013 - 2014		Fair Housing Conference
