Re: 2015-2016 Web Transparency Report Card

Dear Mr. Hamilton-Roth,

Thank you for contacting us regarding the Mill Valley Public Financing Authority's Web Transparency Report Card. We would like to report the following:

Recommendation R1: The Mill Valley Public Financing Authority has updated its website and has submitted the appropriate self-audit form.

Recommendation R2: Staff has compiled the information for the "Statement of Facts" and is waiting to hear back from the Secretary of State and the Marin County Clerk on submittal procedures. Once we receive the required forms and instructions for submittal, we will be able to comply with this recommendation.

Recommendation R3: The information of the annual compensation of Agency elected officials is available on the Agency website: <http://www.cityofmillvalley.org/Index.aspx?page=1694>

Salary information for agency employees is available here:
<http://transparentcalifornia.com/salaries/2015/mill-valley/>

Thank you for your interest in the Mill Valley Public Financing Authority and let me know if you have further questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jim McCann". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

Jim McCann
