Certificate of Honor

Presented To

MARIN COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

On behalf of the State of California, I applaud the Marin County Board of Supervisors for their dedication to civic engagement in Marin County. The California Secretary of State has reported that Marin County earned the highest voter participation rate in the State. This data showed that 87.37% of registered voters in the county participated in the November 2012 General Election. This is an extraordinary triumph, given that only 72.36% of the 18,245,970 registered voters Statewide cast their ballots.

It is an honor to recognize the Marin County Board of Supervisors for their efforts in ensuring that all those eligible take part in our great democracy. I congratulate the Marin County Board of Supervisors on this accomplishment and I wish you the best in your future endeavors.
