Leon Tam has served Child Support Services since 1998. The Department provides services for the enforcement of parental responsibilities, including the establishment of paternity for children and court orders for financial and medical support for children. Leon’s comprehensive knowledge of the program, combined with his willingness to politely assist his colleagues and clients, has made him highly admired and respected.

Leon is self-motivated and has the ambition to seek out solutions and solve problems no matter the topic. He demonstrates the highest work and ethical standards when he reviews cases to ensure accuracy and adherence to policies. He also maintains a positive outlook under any circumstance. Described as having a scrupulous persona, he achieves excellence by consistently going above and beyond as a public employee. Leon is undeniably deserving of this County of Marin accolade.

Congratulations, Leon, on being named Employee of the Month.
