Community Outreach: Property Owners & Managers

Small group meeting held September 29, 2015 to discuss challenges in the rental housing market, opportunities and solutions:

- Support: expanding outreach and education for landlords and tenants, second units, landlord incentives, and acquisition/conversion
- Many long-time landlords value long-term stable tenants; choose to keep rents affordable and minimize turnover
- Additional units need to be built to augment available housing stock
- Not in favor of: rent stabilization, just cause for evictions, or source of income protection
- Concern about potential risks with renting to Section 8 tenants
- Next Step: organize community event for landlords with panel discussion and informational booths covering all topics of concern for rental property owners

Acquisition, Preservation & Conversion

- Preserves affordable housing for existing low income tenants
- Creates new affordable housing opportunities for low income households
- Does not require new development; utilizes existing building and infrastructure
- More cost effective than investing in new development in most cases
- Limited opportunities to apply this strategy due to existing funding
- Requires substantial additional funding to have a significant impact

Incentives

- Significantly preserves and increases the number of housing opportunities available to voucher holders
- Prevents voucher holders from having to move out of the County to utilize their subsidy
- Limited applicability to voucher holders, not others in need of assistance
- Requires additional funding

Workforce Home Ownership Program

- Provides opportunities for local workforce to invest in their community
- Provides stable housing and security for local workforce
- Unlikely to help low income workers
- Only helps one moderate (or above) income household at a time
- Requires substantial additional funding to have an impact

Rent Stabilization

- Preserves existing affordable housing opportunities for low and moderate income households
- Allows modest annual rent increases, providing security for tenants and increased return on investment for property owners
- Has the potential to have the most immediate and significant positive impact toward preserving housing affordability in Marin
 - More than 4,000 multi-family rental units in unincorporated Marin
- Can not be applied to multi-family development built after February 1, 1995, or any single-family homes or condominiums
- Rents can increase to market rate after unit is vacated
- May require additional funding and staffing
