Re: Consideration of Joining an Amicus Brief Filing to the U.S. Supreme Court to Support President Obama's Executive Action on Immigration

Dear Supervisors,

At the request of Supervisor Kinsey, this matter is before your Board for consideration to join in on the filing of an Amicus Brief to the United States Supreme Court to support President Obama's executive action on immigration. This Amicus request was made by the City of New York Law Department.

We request that you consider the request and make a decision on whether to support the filing by joining in on the Amicus Brief, to make a decision to take no action on the request or to make a decision to decline the request.

I have attached the request for your information and consideration. County Counsel Steven Woodside will be present at the Board meeting to answer any questions.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jack F. Govi
Assistant County Counsel
