

RESOLUTION
THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
MARIN COUNTY

PROCLAIMING
JUNETEENTH

JUNE 19, 2020

WHEREAS, Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States; and

WHEREAS, from its Galveston, Texas origin in 1865, the observance of June 19th as the African American Emancipation Day has spread across the United States and beyond, and today Juneteenth commemorates African American freedom and emphasizes education and achievement; and

WHEREAS, it is a day, a week, and in some areas a month marked with celebrations, speakers, picnics and family gatherings. It is also a time for reflection and rejoicing, a time for assessment, self-improvement and for planning the future; and

WHEREAS, we find ourselves in a critical moment of reckoning as it pertains to the lives, liberties, and dreams of Black families locally, nationally, and globally. We understand this moment to be one where we must invest in, support, and edify Black Lives; and

WHEREAS, in cities across the country people of all races, nationalities and religions are joining hands to truthfully acknowledge a period in our history that has shaped and continues to influence the current state of our nation and society; and

WHEREAS, the Emancipation Proclamation which ended slavery greatly influenced migration patterns across the United States and shaped the culture of the Bay Area and Marin County, adding great depth, vibrancy, and value to this diverse region and to the State of California; and

WHEREAS, we acknowledge that this vibrancy, depth, and value has often been marginalized and underserved, and that we utilize this moment to commit to the implementation and valuation of racial equity in Marin County; and

WHEREAS, in the tradition of Juneteenth, we honor the experience of those who came before us and acknowledge the importance of bearing witness to the sacrifices of our ancestors and elders; and

WHEREAS, while Juneteenth was widely celebrated following the Civil War, it experienced decline and repression in the 20th century until the Civil Rights movement of the 1960s and we support it in the spirit of civil rights for ourselves and for all; and

WHEREAS, the promise of Juneteenth remains elusive for Black People as seen most recently in the deaths of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, Sandra Bland and countless others; and

WHEREAS, we honor the memory of slaves, freemen, passengers and supporters of the Underground Railroad and all those who have tirelessly pursued freedom and self-determination; and

WHEREAS, we call to mind those who continue to suffer in various forms of slavery across the globe even today and reject the tyranny and inhumanity of such bondage; and

WHEREAS, we affirm that when people are sensitized to the conditions and experiences of others, only then can we make significant and lasting improvements in our society; and

WHEREAS, we call upon the people of Marin County to eliminate prejudice, and to celebrate the great diversity of the American people and the extraordinary contributions of Black Americans. To look upon the current state of our nation as an opportunity for change that brings about racial equity through the work of radical imagination, intention, purpose, and continued work towards the eradication of prejudice, racism, and injustice.
