LIZ ROTTGER

WHEREAS, Liz Rottger began her career with the Marin County Health and Human Services Department on August, 21, 1985, as a Human Services Planner Evaluator in Aging Services, was reclassified as the Aging Projects Coordinator on July 18, 1993, and was promoted to the position of Program Manager, Division of Aging on June 29, 1996; and

WHEREAS, throughout her tenure, Liz has demonstrated an outstanding dedication to her staff, to the Commission on Aging and to the many non-profit community organizations with whom she has collaborated in order to serve Marin's older population; and

WHEREAS, while constantly advocating for Marin's older population, Liz has shepherded growth in visibility and services, including an expanding quality system of care to meet emerging needs; and

WHEREAS, Liz has persevered in the face of the daily burden of finding enough private and philanthropic funds to maintain critical services over many years of varying budget challenges; and

WHEREAS, Liz has distinguished herself as a dedicated Health and Human Services Executive Team member whose numerous and diverse skills have helped to guide both her Division and the Department through many turbulent times during the past 20 years, including several changes of department Director; and

WHEREAS, triumphantly showing great initiative, benevolence, perseverance and leadership in all of her endeavors; and

WHEREAS, above all things, Liz has walked with integrity, honor, uprightness, style, and character, holding her sense of humor and mutual respect of others; and

WHEREAS, Liz Rottger will retire on March 25, 2005, after a distinguished 20 year career with the Marin County Health and Human Services Division of Aging. She leaves behind an indelible imprint of having served her constituents well, and for that she deserves all of our respect and gratitude. We wish Liz days filled with fond memories, peace and enjoyable new challenges.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin hereby thanks Liz Rottger for her years of outstanding service to the County of Marin, and honors and congratulates her on the occasion of her retirement from the Marin County Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Aging.
