

COMMENDING
CARLA DINGILLO

WHEREAS, Carla Dingillo's service to the Buck Institute for Age Research as the founding Executive Vice President since 1997 has been characterized by dedication and high standards for excellence in her work; and

WHEREAS, Carla Dingillo has been a tireless advocate for the Buck Institute's mission of increasing the healthy years of each individual's life through clinically relevant biomedical research and education on the aging process and age-associated diseases; she played an integral role in forming the founding team of scientific leadership that has carried out this mission in Marin County and beyond; and

WHEREAS, under leadership of which Carla Dingillo has been a significant part, Buck Institute administrators and staff have diligently worked to support the science of detecting, preventing, and treating such diseases as Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, cancer, and heart disease; the Buck Institute team has sought to change the way we experience aging; and

WHEREAS, the Buck Institute is well-known for its exquisite and unique campus, and Carla Dingillo successfully oversaw the completion of the construction phase of the first two buildings designed by renowned architect I.M. Pei; and

WHEREAS, Carla Dingillo is held in high regard by her peers for her can-do spirit and unflagging energy; she never met a challenge she couldn't overcome and inspires those around her to be creative problem-solvers; and

WHEREAS, Carla Dingillo has done a great deal to bring the Buck Institute to where it is today, and along the way has cultivated strong relationships with her colleagues, new adventures await her in Italy, and we wish her all the best as she begins this new chapter of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Marin County Board of Supervisors commends Carla Dingillo on her many contributions to the Buck Institute for Age Research.
