SUBJECT: Revision to the Bolinas Beach Camping Ordinance - First Reading of revised ordinance. Ordinance restricting use of Bolinas Beach for camping during weekends.

RECOMMENDATION: Schedule hearing: March 27, 2007, 10:30 a.m.

Dear Colleagues,

A staff member of the California Coastal Commission has recommended that we revise the Bolinas Beach ordinance so that the area covered by the ordinance will not fall under their jurisdiction, thereby avoiding the need for a coastal permit process. At their suggestion, the definitions section of the revised ordinance, section 6.90.020, now reflects that the area covered by the ordinance is from the mean high tide line, rather than the mean low water line, as referenced in the current draft.

Please join me in reading the ordinance and calling for a hearing on March 27.

FISCAL/STAFFING IMPACT: No impact
